

How to make students talk in bilingual lessons

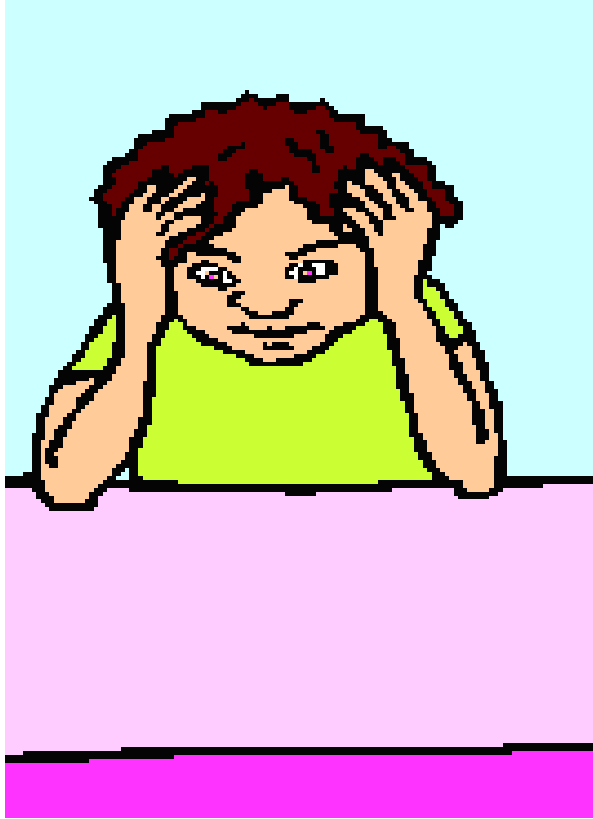

Students must be able to talk

Students must be willing to talk

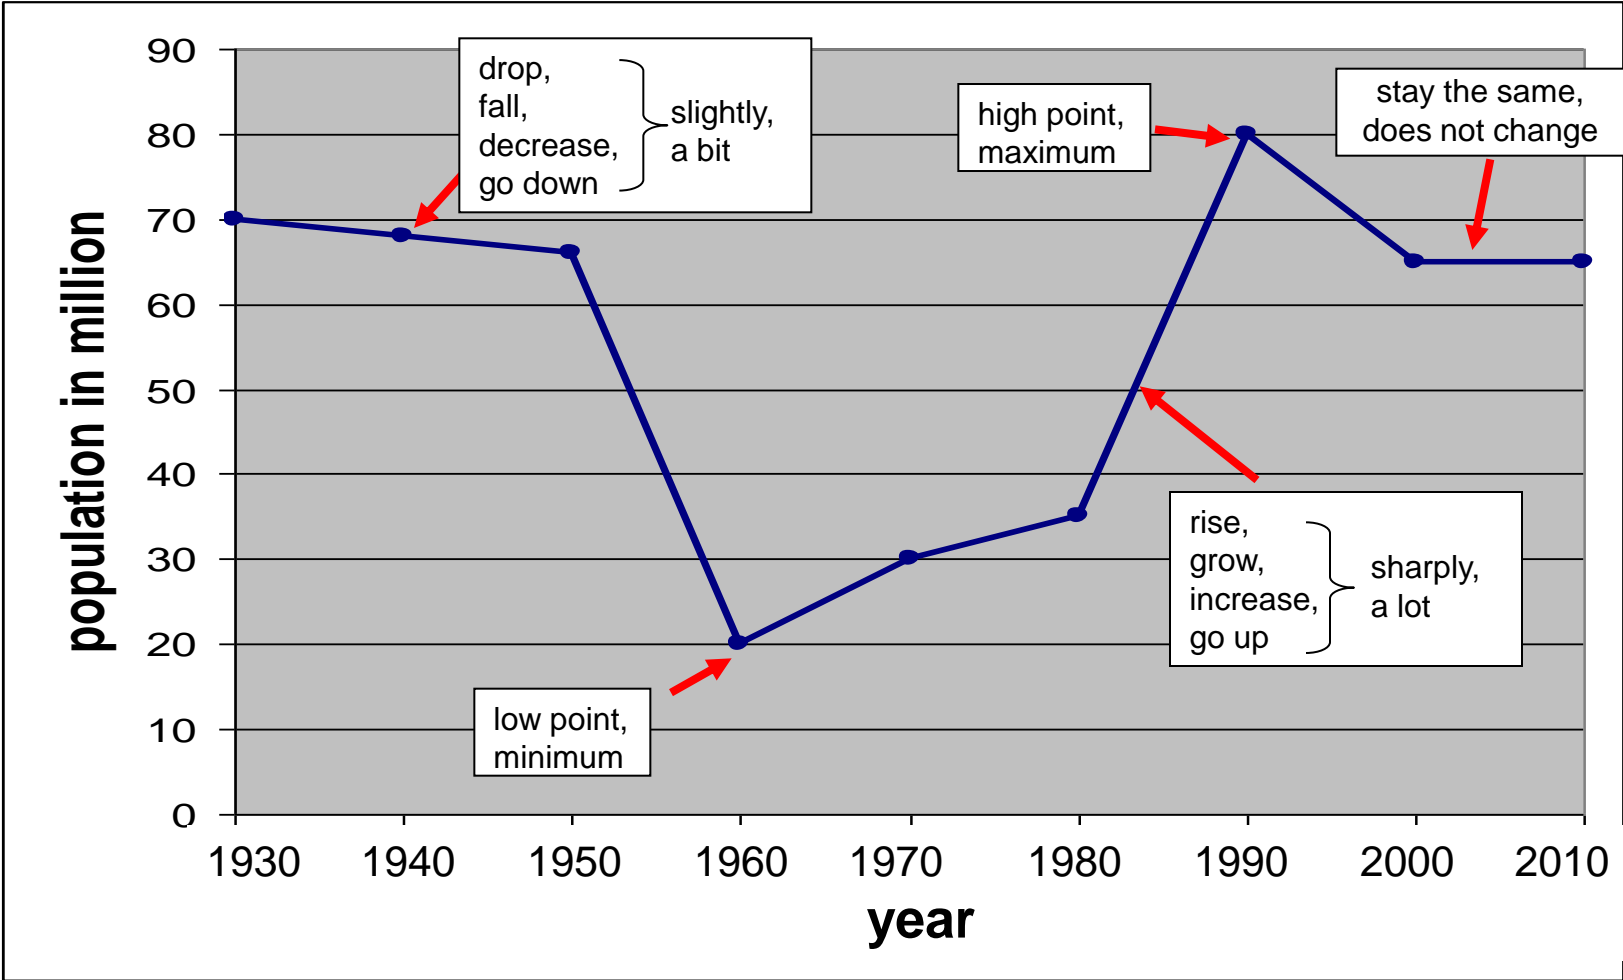

Students must not be afraid of talking

Students must be able to talk

Talking about diagrams

Talking about pictures

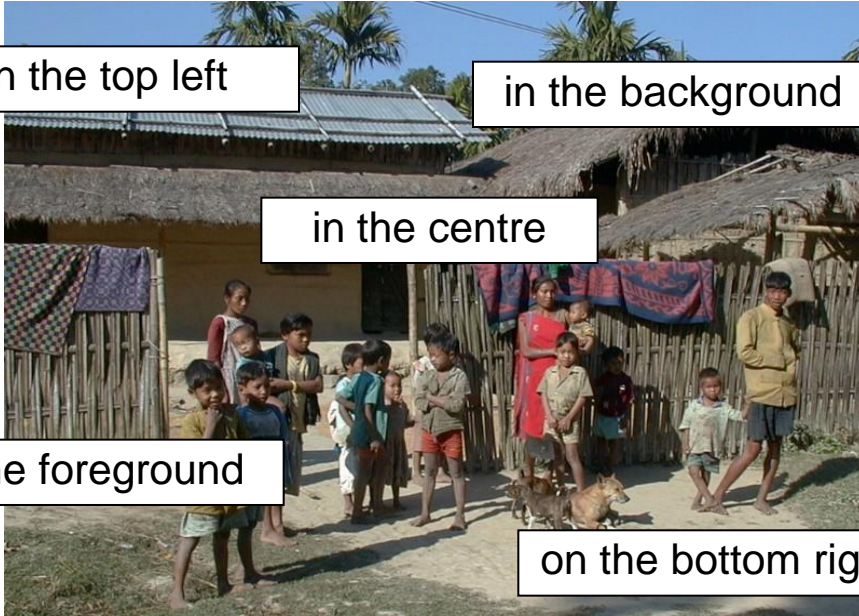

on the top left

in the background

in the centre

in the foreground

on the bottom right

in front of/behind

next to

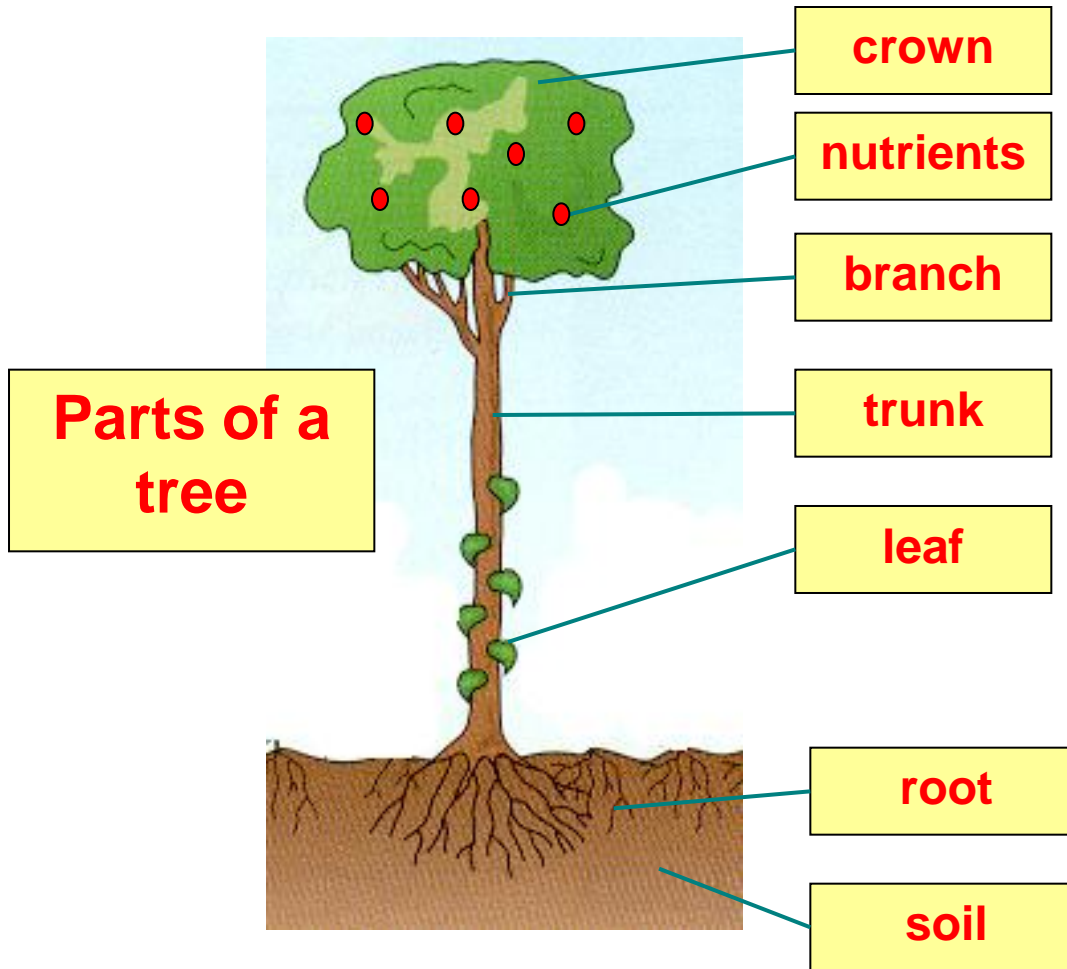

between

Interpreting pictures:

- It seems to me as if ...
- It's possible that ...
- Perhaps, probably ...
- I think that ... / In my opinion ...
- I guess / suppose that ...
- The picture makes me feel ...
- When I look at the picture I feel ...
- I like / I don't like the picture because ...
- The picture wants to tell us ...
- The message of the picture is

Visualizing

Vocabulary list

Important vocabulary

1. What made globalisation possible?

trade
goods
communication technology
(to) transmit
recipient
outsourcing
duties
trade restrictions
liberalisation of the markets

2. Economical globalisation

sweatshop
working conditions
human rights
union
transnational corporation
global player
labour costs
raw materials
advertisement
branch
Sales

3. The World Trade Organisation

free trade
import tariff
free trade zone
trade liberalisation
subsidies
trade barriers
dumping
fair trade
(to) compete with

4. Cultural globalisation

cultural diversity
global village
Denglish
CocaColization

5. Environmental globalisation

emissions
global warming
greenhouse effect
climate change
flooding
droughts
rise of sea-level
treaty

Students must be willing to talk

Revision at the beginning of the lesson

Stummer Impuls

Brainstorming

What comes into your mind when you think of urban and rural areas?

urban

rural

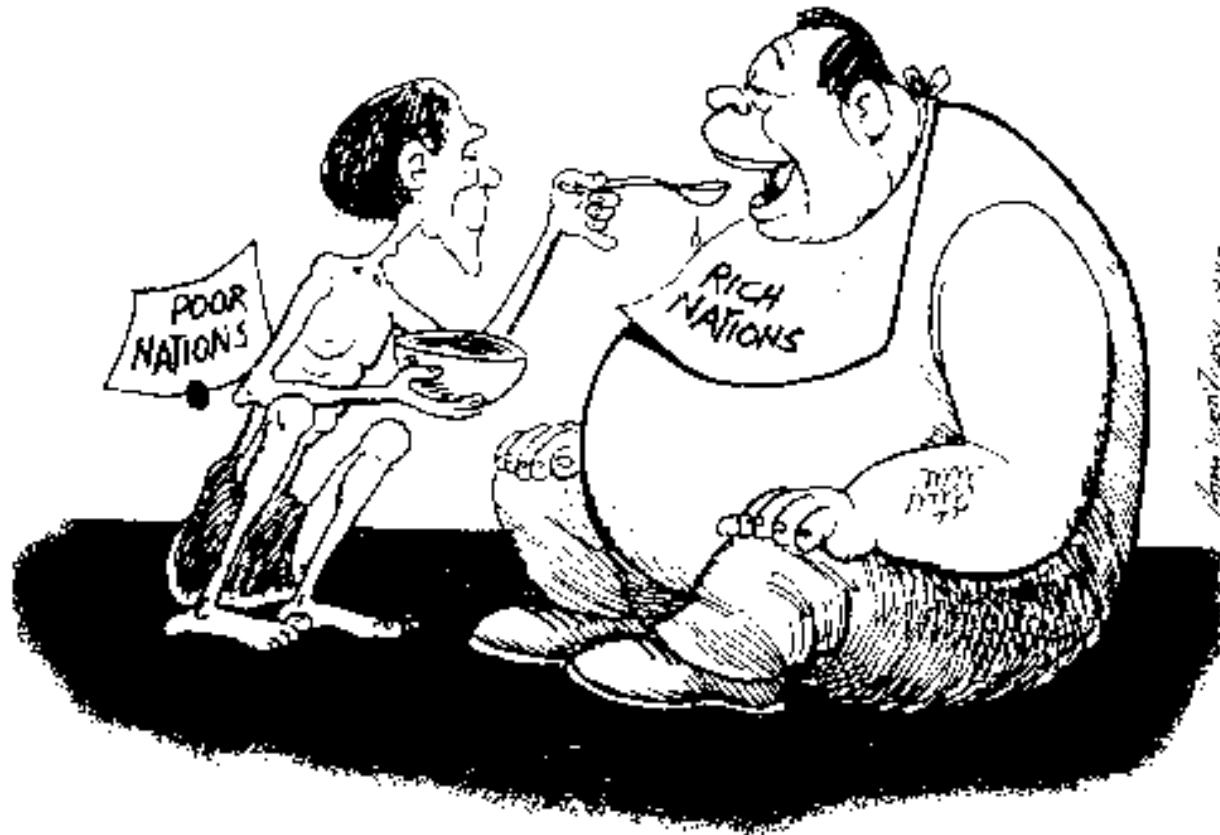

Creating ideas (hypotheses)

What can we do to prepare people for an earthquake?

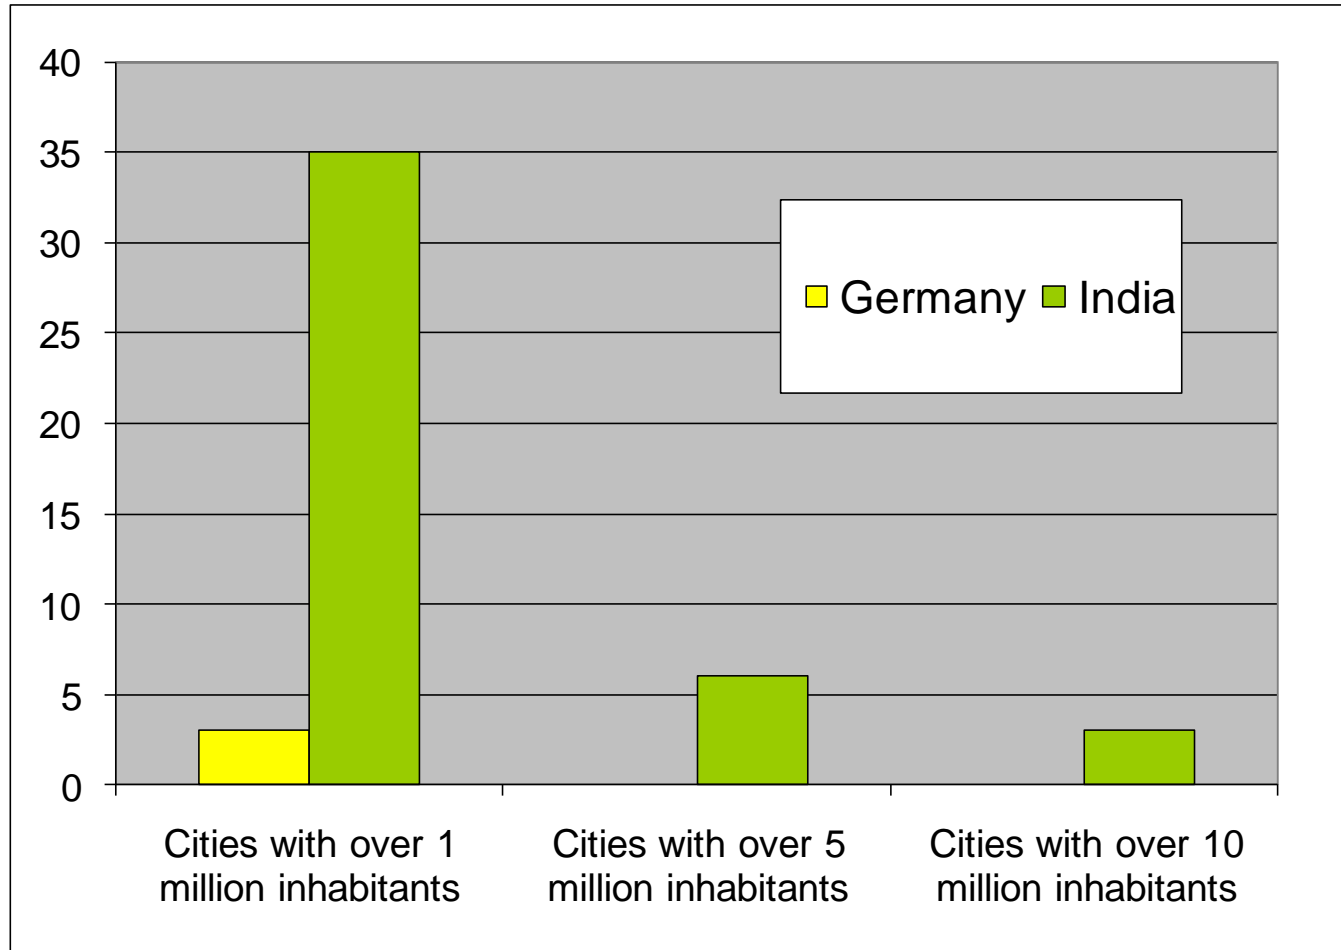

Cartoons

Diagrams

Guessing

Guess: How many jeans factories are there in the USA?

Students must not be afraid of talking

Contents before correctness

On the left side
is more trees.

Alright,
there are
more trees.

Using German

What do you think happened?

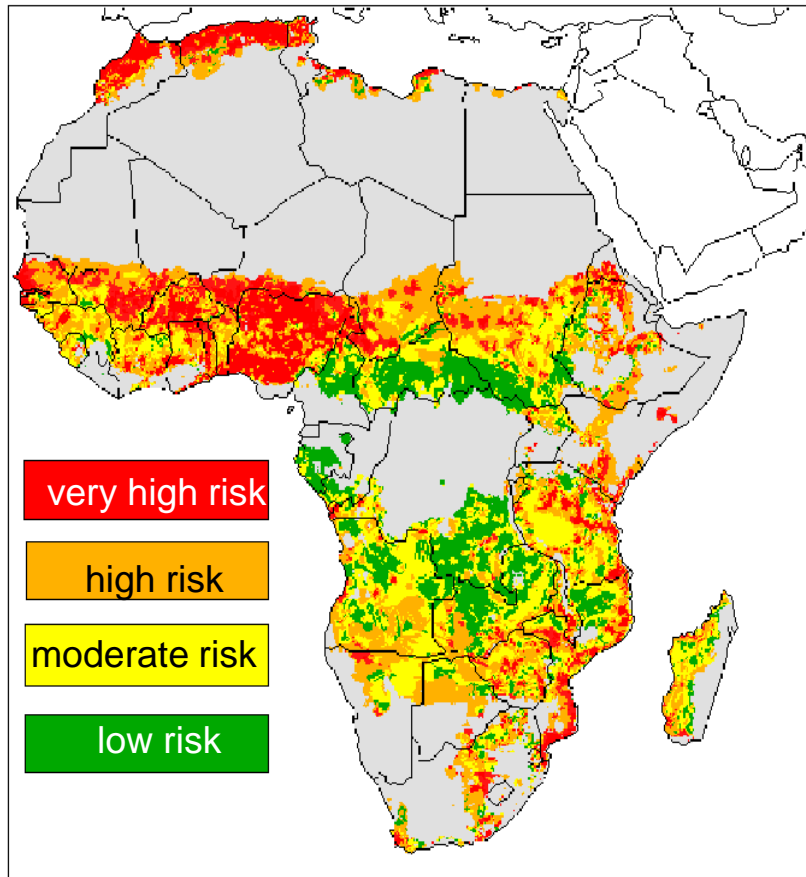

May I say it in German?

Practice with a partner

Talk about what you can see with your neighbour first for a minute.

